

Please excuse the scrap paper – it all helps to save money, and means that I can try to get all the info on one side of the paper! We had a marvellous trip to the Cotswold Wildlife Park, thanks to Muriel, and a damp but successful trip to Thame Market. And I would never have believed how loud and long we could sing at the Ploughmans to the accompaniment of Trevor and Roger from Cherwell. All-in-all an excellent, if damp August.

Horse-drawn barge (Monday 15th September).

By Heyfordian coach. Cost £12 excluding lunch (bring your own picnic – no one has ordered lunch). There is a bar and tea and coffee and biccies available on the barge). All seating is inside the cabin.
