Well, we do have fun, don't we! Lovely party at Kirtlington. Super cream tea (and Bingo, thanks to Terry's 'Number One' grand-daughter Sky. Erika's afternoon tea and raffle (swelling the coffers by £100.50p), and the peace and serenity of the horse-drawn barge. And now a grant of £450 from Cherwell allows me to book the 19 August Bournemouth coach (£400) on which we still have some spaces (let Pat L know). Before that we have the Benson to Abingdon steamer trip (20 July – again a few spaces left (let me know). PLEASE check the lists overleaf.

It has been suggested that we might like to join Heathfield House in sponsoring The Clive Project, a small Witney-based One-to-One service which brings activity, support and fun into the lives of younger people with dementia. What about it? And would people like to know more about one-to-one support for school children learning to read. Again, let me know.
