

Well well, what a lovely summer we have had, and nobody more so than the Evergreens – at least those who took part in the events or had holidays. Since the last Newsletter we have been to Bournemouth, Beckonscot model village, on the horsedrawn barge, to Wellesbourne market and the Oxford Canal as well as some outings closer to home such as the lovely tea at the Old Vicarage in Chesterton kindly hosted by Aki Olver.

Now we need names for the Ploughman's lunch at The Red Cow (£6) on 6th September -to Pat (245297) by the 31st August (Tuesday next) please.

There has been a widespread but otherwise tiny response to the request for expressions of interest in the list of possible outings we published in the last Newsletter and discussed at the last monthly meeting. Because we need more, and to confirm bookings for transport etc please contact Pat, Yvonne, Terry or me if you are interested. I think we need 4 or more to justify the outlay.
